Remembering Mike

On Tuesday, October 21st, many members attended the funeral of member Mike Tanner, at Britain's oldest crematorium in Woking.

It was a moving but uplifting ceremony, with Honorary member Terry Vincent reciting a poem & Jill Coulter King reading the Eulogy. With Mike's love for sailing, Rod Stewart's rendition of 'Sailing' was an apt piece of music to lift everyone's spirits on such a sad occasion.

Everyone then joined Mike's wife Sandy, and his family, at the club for refreshments, provided by Annie, Lesley, Chris and Joyce.

Laying Up Supper Saturday 8th November 7.30 pm.

With only one more official week of sailing left it is nearly time to lay your boats up for the winter. If you are brave enough to try, there will be impromptu sailing on a Sunday morning at 11 am. as long as the weather holds.

In the meantime you can look forward to the 'Laying Up Supper'. (£15 per person.)
